Salisbury Mayoral Race

Tuesday night led to the surprising win for Randy Taylor. Although the Salisbury city elections are non partisan, Taylor was considered the Republican candidate and would have been thought to be the longshot candidate. The 2 progressive candidates, Megan Outten and Jermichael Mitchell. This was a major break with the recent historical trend in Salisbury of electing progressive mayors.

MAYORAL RESULTS

Jermichael Mitchell received 810 votes, or 28.63% of the votes.

Megan Outten received 976 votes, or 34.50% of the votes.

Randy Taylor received 1,032 votes, or 36.48% of the votes.
