LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

DATE: 04/15/2024

WORCESTER COUNTY:

Snow Hill: The county commissioners and the Board of education have escalated their feud about funding. The county commissioners conducted a 6 hour hearing going over the BOE budget. Worcester United and other groups staged a rally on 4/14/2024 on the boardwalk to show their support of the BOE. Attendance was high with children and parents in attendance. The BOE has staggered elections by council district and is non partisan. Even though the election is non partisan the candidates that have challengers will have to have a “primary” to reduce the candidates to only 2. BOE members Donald Smack 2-Berlin, Jon Andes 3-WOC, Elena McComas 5-North Ocean Pines. The election will be held 05/07/2024.

WICOMICO COUNTY:

Salisbury: Sheriff Mike Lewis has echoed property owners objections to the proposed Jeep event “Safari at the Quarry”. The Shadow Hills residents have raised concerns over noise and disruption to their lives. The Sheriff made concerns echoing that as well as law enforcement concerns.
